

Meet Christine and Vicky — The New Faces Behind Katterman's

We're excited to share that Katterman's Pharmacy is now under the ownership of Vicky Chu and Christine Lee, local pharmacists and owners of Cascadia Pharmacy in Wallingford. We're honored to carry on the Katterman's legacy and remain committed to providing the trusted, personalized care you've relied on for generations.

Vicky is a community pharmacist and leader with over 25 years of experience. A native of Victoria, BC and UBC graduate, she is passionate about immunizations and expanding clinical services in pharmacy. Vicky focuses on making healthcare more accessible and personalized through trusted, local care that supports the needs of her community.

Christine is a dedicated community pharmacist with over 15 years of experience. Born and raised in the greater Seattle area, she graduated from UW and has spent her entire career in community pharmacy. Christine is passionate about building trust with her patients and promoting accessible, compassionate care. She lives in Seattle with her husband and two energetic young children, and enjoys cooking, traveling, and exploring the Pacific Northwest.
